2003-04 Outlook

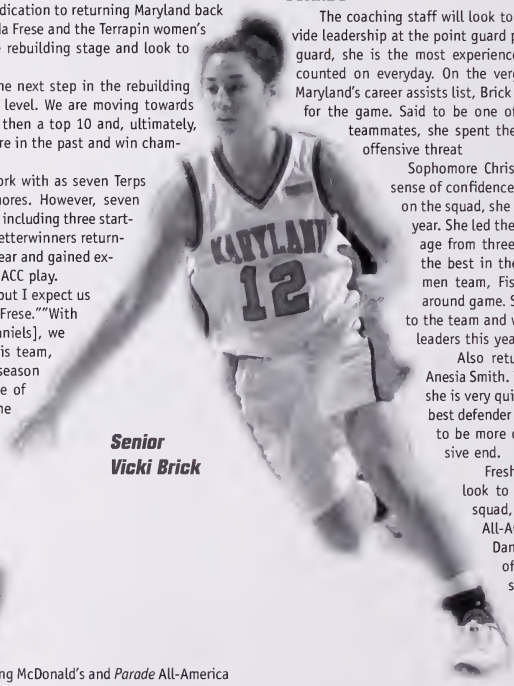
Maryland Enters Year Two Of The Brenda Frese Era

With one season under her belt at the Maryland helm, her first full recruiting class joining the team and her dedication to returning Maryland back to national prominence, head coach Brenda Frese and the Terrapin women's basketball team take another step in the rebuilding stage and look to improve upon last season.

"We're really excited about taking the next step in the rebuilding process and taking Maryland to the next level. We are moving towards making Maryland into a top 25 program, then a top 10 and, ultimately, becoming the national power we once were in the past and win championships," said Frese.

Frese has a fairly young squad to work with as seven Terps on the roster are freshmen and sophomores. However, seven letterwinners return from last year's squad, including three starters. Although a young team, each of the letterwinners returning contributed significant minutes last year and gained experience throughout the year and during ACC play.

"We have an extremely young team, but I expect us to have a ton of enthusiasm," remarked Frese.""With the loss of Renneika [Razor] and Teri [Daniels], we will be looking to the seniors to lead this team, especially Vicki Brick who is in her fifth season at Maryland and has the most experience of anyone on the team. But at the same time it will be a blend of veterans and new faces."



Senior Vicki Brick

Incorporating the veterans with the newcomers, who will make immediate contributions, is the key ingredient for the Terps to be more competitive in the ACC this season.

The Terps welcome five new faces to the program which include highly-touted recruits in Shay Doron and Kalika France. Doron earned national recognition, garnering McDonald's and Parade All-America honors, while France brings with her Parade All-America accolades.

"Another year older, another year wiser," could not be more true in the case of the Terrapin women's basketball team. With the returnees coming into now a familiar situation, the team is ready to build on what they learned from last season.

"The seven returning players know what to expect this year. They now know the system, they know our expectations," saidFrese. "We're going to come in and work hard and have a lot of fun in the process. That should give the returnees a sense of comfort as well as a lot of confidence."

GUARDS

The coaching staff will look to fifth-year senior Vicki Brick to provide leadership at the point guard position. The only returning starting guard, she is the most experienced player on the team and can be counted on everyday. On the verge of breaking into the top 10 on Maryland's career assists list, Brick plays with a lot of heart and passion for the game. Said to be one of the team's hardest worker by her teammates, she spent the off-season becoming a consistent offensive threat

Sophomore Chrissy Fisher comes in with a renewed sense of confidence. By far the best three-point shooter on the squad, she was the team's "secret weapon" last year. She led the Terps with a .382 shooting percentage from three-point land, which was also among the best in the ACC. Named to the ACC All-Freshmen team, Fisher has developed more of an all-around game. She brings a great deal of confidence to the team and will be looked upon to be one of the leaders this year.

Also returning at the guard spot is junior Anesia Smith. The most athletic player on the team, she is very quick and agile and is, hands down, the best defender on the team. She will be looked upon to be more of a consistent threat on the offensive end.

Freshmen Kalika France and Shay Doron look to make an immediate impact to the squad, helping to make up for the losses of All-ACC selection Renneika Razor and Terri Daniels, who finished her career as one of Maryland's all-time best three-point shooters.

France and Doron come to College Park with many credentials and with a history of success. Both have tremendous confidence heading into their first seasons as Terps and will be expected to contribute right away.

A Parade All-American, France is a local talent who comes from an accomplished background. A slasher and penetrating guard, she is one of the most athletic players to come through the Maryland program in a long time.

With the mention of Christ the King, great women's basketball players in Chamique Holdsclaw and Sue Bird immediately come to mind. Also a graduate of that same high school, Doron learned to play at the highest level while with the Isreali National Team this summer and gained plenty of experience. A Parade and McDonald's All-American, she is another great competitor who brings a winning mentality to to College Park.

Pushing Brick at the point guard position is Alli Spence. A junior transfer from Old Dominion University where she was 2000 Colonial Athletic Association Rookie of the Year, she is a true point guard who knows the game and understands it. Spence also brings a highly successful prep career with her. While at Chatfield High School in Colorado, she led her team to a 44-4 record and two state championships over her last two seasons.

Also joining the team as an invited walk-on is C'Vette Henson. An explosive guard, she will use this season to learn the system, gain confidence and adjust to playing at the collegiate level.

"We have a lot of youth at the guard positions and have to have solid guard play to be successful," said Frese.

FORWARDS AND CENTERS

"The player who has made the biggest improvement at the post is Delvona [Oliver]. She has dedicated herself to becoming the best she can be. She is ready to take her game to the next level and has accepted the responsibility of becoming a leader for this team and to be a physical presence down low," said Frese.

A junior college transfer, Oliver missed the first half of the season but joined the team in late December and went on to score 10.5 points and grab 5.3 rebounds per game.

Senior Crystal Washington will also contribute at the low-post. She will be relied on to be a scorer and a rebounder. Washington was hampered by injuries for most of last season but returns 100 percent healthy.

As freshmen, Angel Ross and Charmaine Carr gained a wealth of experience down low. Now a sophomore, Ross started many games a year ago at center, averaging 6.0 ppg and 5.5 rpg. A tireless worker on the boards, she has improved in all areas of her game.

Classmate Carr also started several games last season and earned most improved honors from the coaching staff after contributing 5.1 ppg and 3.6 rpg. Having improved on her ballhandling skills and range of her shot, she is very versatile and can play multiple positions on the court.

Coming a long way to be a member of the Terrapin squad, freshman Aurelie Noirez hails from France. At 6-2, she will add depth to the post lineup and will do all the little things - rebound, score, defend and set screens. Noirez brings international playing experience, having played for the French Junior National Team.

SCHEDULE

The Terps look forward to another tough schedule that includes national powers and local rivals, but one that is set up for success, opening the season with five-straight home games, including the Terrapin Classic.

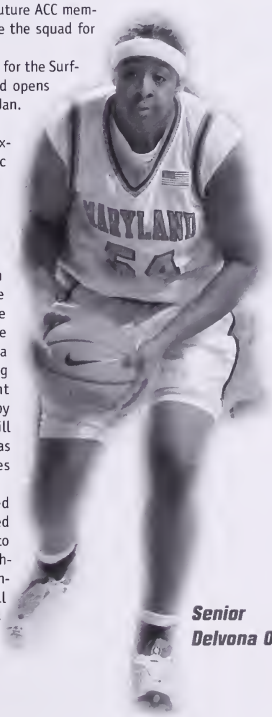
Maryland will once again host intrastate tilts with Coppin State, UMBC, Loyola and UMES. The Terps also face national non-conference opponents in Penn State, Texas Tech and future ACC member Virginia Tech will prepare the squad for the rigors of ACC play.

After a trip to San Diego for the Surf-N-Slam Tournament, Maryland opens the ACC schedule at home on Jan. 2 against NC State.

"It should be another exciting season in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Every game is a battle and any team can knock off anyone on any given night," commented Frese.

A conference loaded with talent, the top teams in Duke and North Carolina lead the way. The Terps look to improve upon their 4-12 record from a season ago. A disappointing first-round ACC Tournament exit in which Maryland lost by two points to Clemson, will keep the Terps' fire burning as conference schedule comes around.

"We were not satisfied with the way the season ended last year. The goal for us is to continue to improve throughout the season and hit the conference tournament at full stride. The ACC Tournament is always exciting to play. Greensboro does a tremendous job hosting and we look forward to playing in it," said Frese.



Senior Delvona Oliver

The team will also appear on television at least six times this season, including a nationally televised contest on ESPN2 on Feb. 22 when the Terps host Duke.

With all its youth, anticipation of year two under coach Frese is high. But the Terps are focused and ready to take on the new season.

"The key to the season is to come in every day being ready to compete, ready to bring a mentality you refuse to lose, ready to be a winner, and ready to bring that work ethic each and every day you come in."

PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

Who's Back

The Terps return seven letterwinners from last season's squad, including three starters. Fifth-year senior Vicki Brick (Timonium, Md.) comes back as the team's point guard and captain. Starting in all 28 games, she averaged 7.8 points per game and 3.3 assists per game as a point guard. The tallest player on the squad at 6-3, senior Delvona Oliver (Euclid, Ohio) looks to put in a full season after coming to Maryland as a transfer from Cincinnati State. After becoming eligible to play after the first semester last season, she went on to average 10.5 ppg and 5.3 rpg. Sophomore Angel Ross (Midlothian, Va.) is also returning starter. She is the team's top returning rebounder, averaging 5.5 boards per game.

Sophomore Charmaine Carr (Brandywine, Md.) started 19 games last season and junior Anesia Smith (Alexandria, Va.) scored 5.3 ppg, appearing in all 28 games. Senior Crystal Washington (Clinton, Md.) was hampered by injuries a year ago and looks to be in top health.

Moving Up

Two Terps enter the season looking to improve in the Maryland career annals. Fifth-year senior Vicki Brick (Timonium, Md.) is ninth on the Terps' all-time steals list with 206 and is 12th in assists (316). After an standout freshman campaign which resulted in ACC All-Freshmen team recognition, Chrissy Fisher (Rumson, N.J.) is already one of the best three-point sharp shooters in school history, ranking sixth in three-pointers made (42) and seventh in three pointers attempted (110). Her .382 field goal percentage behind the arc is currently fourth all-time.

Terps Welcome Five New Faces

Maryland welcomes five new faces to the 2003-04 squad – four freshmen and one junior transfer. Freshmen–Shay Doron (Great Neck, N.Y.) and Kalika France (Forestville, Md.) were both selected 2003 Parade All-Americans and were named Gatorade Players of the Years for their home states. C'Vette Henson'(Annapolis, Md.) is from nearby Annapolis High School where she led Anne Arundel County in scoring as a senior en route to all-county and All-Met honors. Aurelie Noirez had to cross the Atlantic Ocean to get to College Park. A native of Vandoeuvre, France, she was a member of the French Junior National Team. Also joining the squad is junior transfer Alli Spence (Lafayette, Colo.). Spence played two seasons at Old Dominion and was named Colonial Athletic Conference Rookie of the Year in 2000.

Also Joining the Terps...

Also new to the Terps is the newest member of the Maryland women's basketball coaching staff,'Joanna Bernabei. Bernabei comes with a long list of credentials in the coaching and collegiate ranks. She spent the last two seasons on the West Virginia sidelines and also had stints at Eastern Kentucky and West Virginia Wesleyan where she was a head coach.

Bernabei replaces head coach Brenda Frese's sister, Marsha. Marsha Frese was a Terps assistant coach last season and left for an assistant coaching position at Illinois.

After collecting 2002 Associated Press National Coach of the Year honors for performing her second-consecutive resurrection of a Division I women's basketball program, Maryland successfully courted Iowa native Brenda Frese to the Comcast Center sidelines in April 2002.

In four seasons, Frese has accumulated a 67-48 (.583) career record, while making amazing turnarounds her calling card. The 33-year-old head coach has been described as dynamic, over-achieving, determined and enthusiastic. Her first season at the Terps' helm was the rebuilding year predicted to be for the program. With a roster short on depth but high on effort, Frese led Maryland to a 10-18 record, narrowly missing wins at several junctures. Frese's Terps also notched several positive steps in her first year, including: breaking 100 points in a game for the first time since Dec. 29, 1993, winning their first ACC road game since Feb. 19, 2001, posting a crowd of 5,078 - the largest at a Maryland women's basketball game since Feb. 24, 1996, and bringing home their first win from Florida State since the 1995-96 season. The Terps' four-win conference season tied or beat the Terps' ACC mark two of the past four years and fell one win short of tying or beating it three out of the past four.

"Coming to Maryland presented the biggest challenge of my career thus far, but remains an extremely exciting and promising opportunity for my staff and I," said Frese. "With top 25 recruits joining the team this year and last year's returnees already knowing our system and how we work, we should be able to take many positive steps this season toward building this program back into a national power."

One of college basketball's rising stars, Frese fits with Maryland's legacy of success. At Minnesota, she earned AP National Coach of the Year honors as well as Big Ten Coach of the Year recognition for turning the Gophers' 8-20 program into a 22-8 team and a top 25 contender. One of the biggest one-season turnarounds in NCAA history, Minnesota set a school record with 22 wins and tied for second in the Big Ten with an 11-5 conference mark. Frese also took the Gophers to what was only the school's second NCAA Tournament appearance. The Golden Gophers earned a seeded fifth in the NCAA Tournament and defeated UNLV in the first round before being eliminated by three points in the second round by North Carolina.

Frese's revitalization of the Minnesota program rocked the Big Ten establishment, her team's 10-win improvement in conference play marking the biggest one-year improvement in Big Ten history. Moreover, the 11 Big Ten wins were three more than Minnesota totaled in the previous six seasons combined. The Golden Gophers also achieved the highest ranking in school history when Minnesota was listed 14th in the Associated Press Top 25 in mid-February and garnered a No. 18 ranking in the final regular season AP poll. Undoubtedly, Frese had arrived.

Frese started her head coaching career during the 1999-2000 season at Ball State, a program that had gone 66-169 in the nine seasons prior to her arrival. She guided the Cardinals to a 16-13 showing in 2000 and garnered Coach of the Year honors in the Mid-American Conference. Frese led Ball State to a school-best 19-9 mark in 2000-01, capturing only the school's second back-to-back winning seasons in Ball State history. Her final year at Ball State, the 2000-01 team received votes in the AP poll and climbed as high as No. 28 in the country.

Frese's enthusiam has been contagious for the fans of her teams as well, as support increased significantly at both Minnesota and Ball State under her leadership. Buoyed by the best start (9-1) in school history last season, the Golden Gophers finished the season ranked 19th nationally in home attendance average (4,360), including an average of 8,828 fans during the second half of the campaign when the team moved to Williams Arena from the Sports Pavilion. The Gophers attracted the top four crowds in school history, including a record attendance of 12,142 vs. Michigan State and a crowd of 11,389 vs. Indiana. Frese's 2000-01 Ball State team posted a 10-2 home record and set a single-season home attendance record.

She launched her Division I coaching career in 1994 as an assistant coach at Kent State University, helping the Golden Flashes to records of 20-8 (1994) and 17-10 (1995) during her two years there. The Cedar Rapids, Iowa native then joined Bill Fennelly's staff at Iowa State as the Cyclones' recruiting coordinator where she assisted in another impressive turnaround, helping ISU to three NCAA Tournament appearances in four years. All told, the Cyclones posted a composite record of 84-38 with Frese as an assistant, including a 17-10 record in 1995-96 when Iowa State recorded the biggest one-season turnaround in school history. In 1997, the Cyclones made their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament, a feat they duplicated in 1998 and 1999 with identical 25-8 records. In 1999, Iowa State was ranked among the nation's top 25 for the entire season and came within one victory of reaching the Final Four.

During her stay at Iowa State, her 1998-99 recruiting class was ranked among the nation's top 10, and the Cyclones enjoyed tremendous success at the gate, drawing a record crowd of 12,337 vs. Santa Clara in the first round of an NCAA Tournament game played in Ames, Iowa, and rewriting Iowa State's single-season attendance mark multiple times.

Frese is a 1993 graduate of the University of Arizona, where she was a four-year guard and three-year letterwinner for the Wildcats. When injuries sidelined her during her senior season, she joined the Pima Community College coaching staff in Tucson, Ariz., as an assistant coach in charge of recruiting and scouting. Aside from her bachelor's degree in communications from Arizona in 1993, she also earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Kent State in 1995.

What They Are Saying About Coach Brenda Frese...

"Coach Frese has a superb record of achievement as a head coach in two different Division I conferences. She is an overachiever ... a dynamic and determined leader as a coach. Over time, she will put our program in a position to compete for the national championship as one of the elite women's basketball programs in the country."

—Maryland Athletics Director Deborah A. Yow

—National Champion Connecticut Head Coach Geno Auriemma

"Brenda is one of the young dynamic coaches in the game. Obviously, with my being an Old Dominion player, I have known of the Maryland program for years and where it has been and what it has achieved. If you give Brenda time, she will make Maryland one of the top teams not only in the ACC, but I think Maryland has the potential to be a top-10 team for a long time to come."

—Basketball Hall of Famer and ESPN Basketball Analyst Nancy Lieberman

"Brenda is a proven coach. I'm excited about her youth and enthusiasm. I think she's going to do a tremendous job for Maryland. I congratulate her and I look forward to her being able to make the same type of turnaround she made with the Minnesota program."

—ESPN Basketball Analyst Vera Jones

"Brenda is definitely one of the brightest young coaches in America. She's a great student of the game. She will be very successful at Maryland."

—Arizona Head Coach Joan Bonvicini

"I think this is a great hire for the University of Maryland. Brenda will do a great job of continuing the great tradition of Maryland basketball. She is outstanding in all areas needed to lead a program to national prominence. She is hard working and extremely organized. She knows what it takes to find players that can succeed at this level."

—Iowa State Head Coach Bill Fennelly

"I think the University of Maryland made a good choice in hiring Brenda. She is obviously an up-and-coming coach and she did a great job at the University of Minnesota while she was there. She worked for me so I feel I know her a little better than some other people. I think she will do a great job there, I think it was a good hire and I think that five years down the road, the University of Maryland will have a very good team on their hands."

—Kent State Head Coach Bob Lindsay

"Brenda brought life to the potential that we all knew this team, program and community had. We thank her for bringing that potential to life and wish her well. I know she'll be a great coach at Maryland."

MARK PEARSON

Director of Basketball Operations • Iowa State '96
Second Year at Maryland • Seventh Year in Basketball

Head coach Brenda Frese took care of all the details when she built her staff at Minnesota, and brought her winning formula intact to Maryland, including Director of Basketball Operations Mark Pearson. In his second year, Pearson oversees the general operations of the basketball program, especially the planning of team travel.

Pearson was also at Minnesota with Frese and handled team travel, scheduling practices, coordinating camps and assisting with community service. His experience before Minnesota was vast and varied, including knowledge of both the business and the coaching worlds.

Prior to joining the Gophers' athletic department, Pearson spent two years in the sales department of Reuters, Inc., in Ankeny, Iowa. From 1997-99, he was an assistant basketball coach at Iowa Central Community College and was involved in everything from recruiting and scouting, to summer camps, to overseeing student-athletes' academic performances.

He spent two years as an Iowa Central Junior College player before continuing his education at Iowa State. He served as a graduate assistant and manager of the Cyclone men's basketball team from 1993-97. During that time, Iowa State made three trips to the NCAA Tournament, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 1997.

Pearson earned his bachelor's degree in finance from Iowa State in 1996 and a master's of education in sports management from Iowa State in 2003.

Pearson and his wife Jennifer reside in Laurel, Md. Their son B.J. celebrated his second birthday on March 1, 2001. The couple's second child, Natalie Lynne, was born on July 27, 2003.

SEASON REVIEW

2003-04 MARYLAND WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

REVIEW NOTEBOOK

Terps Open Comcast Center, Brenda Frese Era

The Terrapins opened the Brenda Frese era on Nov. 22, 2002, in the first-ever game, men's or women's, in the Terps' new home. Renneika Razor scored the first-ever basket in Comcast Center en route to the Terps' 80-72 win over Loyola.

Frese, the 2002 Associated Press Coach of the Year for her success at Minnesota, replaced Maryland Hall of Fame coach Chris Weller as just the third head coach in Maryland women's basketball history. With Frese on the sidelines, the Terrapins made strides in recruiting and attendance on their way back to national prominence.

Terps Garner ACC Honors

Renneika Razor and Chrissy Fisher picked up All-ACC nods in 2003. Razor received the first All-ACC honor of her career, landing on the second team, marking Maryland's highest individual conference accolade since Kalisa Davis was named second team All-ACC in 1998. Razor was the top vote-getter on the second team and was named to the ACC's All-Defense squad for the second year in a row.

Fisher received ACC All-Freshmen team honors earning 31 votes, the third-highest total. She was the Terps' third-consecutive all-freshmen honoree, as Anesia Smith was tabbed in 2002 and Kiki Wimbush in 2001. Fisher was also selected to the womenscollegehoops.com's Freshmen Honorable Mention All-American awards list.

Razor On All-Time Charts

Renneika Razor became the 10th player in school history to finish her career in the top 20 in scoring and top 15 in rebounding. Razor reached the 1,000-point plateau on January, 19, 2002, with a 16-point performance at Virginia. She is the 20th Terrapin to accomplish the feat, ending her Terrapin career as the No. 18 all-time leading scorer with 1,163.

Razor continued to climb the UM career chart for steals, averaging 3.31 per game in her senior year. Razor set a career-high for steals in the Florida State loss on January 16, 2002, with eight and finished her career fourth on Maryland's all-time list with 266 steals.

Maryland's All-Time Steals Chart

1.	Debbie Lytle (1980-83)	315
2.	Sonia Chase (1995-98)	309
3.	Deanna Tate (1986-89)	293
4.	Renneika Razor (2000-03)	266
5.	Myra Waters (1979-82)	241

Terps Get Largest Crowd In Six Years

A crowd of 5,078, the largest at a Maryland women's basketball game since Feb. 24, 1996, was in attendance for the Maryland-NC State game on Feb. 1, 2002. With the home crowd behind them, the Terps won a thrilling 74-72 decision in overtime. The last time the Terrapins hosted a home crowd that large was when 5,750 people were in attendance when No. 9 Virginia came to town.

100 Points!

The Terps broke 100 points in a game for the first time since a 102-31 win over UMES on Dec. 28, 1993. UM had a decisive victory, 104-66, against Rider at Comcast Center on Nov. 29, 2002. Maryland's 104-point output was the highest since Dec. 1, 1992 win for the Terps over Drexel. That game was a 121-52 win for the Terps, and still stands as the school record for points in a game.

All-ACC Renneika Razor

Going Up

- With a 10-18 final mark and a 4-12 conference record, Maryland made the following strides in 2002:
- Maryland won its first ACC road game since Feb. 19, 2001, when it grabbed a 69-53 win at Wake Forest. The Terrapins held on for their first ACC road win in 10 tries.
- Maryland came home with a win from Florida State for the first time since the 1996-97 season. The 66-61 win was the first for the Terps since Jan. 15, 1997, when Maryland took home a 65-58 victory.
- Maryland's 4-12 conference record tied or beat the Terps' ACC mark two of the past four years and fell just one win short of tying or beating it three out of the past four.

Terps Open Comcast Center With Win

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Terrapin women's basketball team opened the Comcast and Brenda Frese era on the right foot with an 80-72 win over the visiting Loyola Greyhounds. Maryland starts the season 1-0, while Loyola falls to 0-1.

The Terrapins jumped out to a 12-4 lead with a strong opening five minutes, including six points from Angel Ross. Ross finished the half with 10 points, with Renneika Razor adding nine. Paced by Jennifer Mitchell's eight first-half points, Loyola drew the score as close as seven points with just over seven minutes remaining. At the half, it was Maryland 35, Loyola 27.

Loyola brought the score within four points off back-to-back jumpers from Katie Netherton and Shontrese Smith to open the second half. Maryland stretched the lead back to as many as 14 points with 13:12 remaining on the strength of seven straight points from the Terps' Terri Daniels and buckets by Razor, Crystal Washington and Chrissy Fisher in the 14-7 run that spanned two minutes and 40 seconds.

Loyola got no closer than six as time ran down, and the Terps eventually grabbed the eight-point victory when the buzzer sounded despite fighting foul trouble in the post. Razor led the Terps with 16 points, while Vicki Brick pitched in with 13 points. Ross and Washington both ended the day with 11 points.

16-2 Run Propels Terps to Victory

NIAGARA, N.Y. - The Terrapin women's basketball team continued its winning ways on Sunday afternoon as it cruised to a 68-53 victory over Niagara University in the first meeting ever between the two schools. Sunday's contest marked the first time that an Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) school had met the Purple Eagles. Maryland moved to a perfect 2-0 on the season with the victory while Niagara fell to 0-1 in the loss.

After battling back-and-forth in the first half of play, the Terps, who held an 11-point advantage at one point in the opening half, found themselves leading just 31-28 at the intermission despite shooting 50 percent (13-26) from the floor.

In the second half, the Terrapins got it done on both ends of court to extend their lead to double digits. Behind the strength of a 16-2 run, which ranged over the span of six plus minutes, the Terps extended their lead to as many as 18 points. On the defensive end of the floor the Terps were just as tough as they held the Purple Eagles to just nine second half field goals, in cruising to a 15-point victory.

Terri Daniels led the way for Maryland in the victory, shooting 6-for-7 from the field en route to scoring a game-high 18 points. Charmaine Carr was a force in the middle for the Terps tallying nine points to go along with her career-high 10 rebounds while Renneika Razor added 12 points and seven rebounds in the victory. In the loss, Marisa Sirianni paced Niagara with 15 points and 11 rebounds.

Maryland Scores Most Points Since 1991

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Maryland women's basketball team opened the 2002 Terrapin Classic at Comcast Center in winning fashion, rolling to a 104-66 victory over Rider. The win improves Maryland's all-time mark to 7-0 in the tournament. The point total is the highest output for a Maryland team since Nov. 30, 1991.

In the early going, the two teams went back and forth trading baskets through the first seven minutes of action. Holding a 23-18 lead, the Terrapins reeled-off a 16-0 run that was capped off with a lay-up by Angel Ross to give Maryland a commanding 36-20 lead. Rider answered to cut the Maryland lead to 10 points with just under three minutes remaining in the first half of play when Leanne Moore buried a jumper to make it 44-34.

Maryland's Chrissy Fisher closed out the scoring in the first half when she drained a three-pointer to give the Terps a 55-38 lead at the break. Vicki Brick paced the Terrapins through the first twenty minutes of play with 12 points while Ross chipped in 11. Becky Hower led the Broncs in the first half of action with 14 points.

The Terrapins picked up where they left off the first half when they extended their lead to 20, four minutes into the second half on a lay-in by Rennieka Razor, giving the Terps a 65-45 lead.

The Terrapins pushed their lead to 30 with 8:40 remaining in the contest when Fisher found Razor for a short jumper to give Maryland an 86-55 advantage. Razor was one of four Terps to hit for double digits as she finished the game with 18 points and five rebounds.

With the game well under control, Maryland continued to give the Broncs problems offensively, forcing a total of 21 turnovers on the defensive end of the floor. With 1:30 remaining in the contest, Fisher found Brick, who led Maryland with a game-high 20 points, for an uncontested lay-up to put the Terps over the century mark, 100-63. The bucket marked the first time that the Terps have broke the 100-point plateau since Dec. 28, 1993, when they knocked off UMES 102-31.

Terps Drop First Game of the Season

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Maryland women's basketball team suffered its first loss of the season when they dropped a 70-64 decision to Rhode Island, the 2002 Terrapin Classic Champions. It is also Maryland's first-ever loss in the Terrapin Classic.

In the early going, it appeared as though Rhode Island had not cooled off from its 89-58 win over UMES as they raced out to an early 20-12 lead on the Terrapins. After the sluggish start, Maryland battled back to tie the score at 20-20 with seven minutes remaining in the first half and took its first lead of the game when Terri Daniels sank a jumper to give the Terps a 22-20 advantage with 5:57 remaining. Maryland's lead would be short lived, as the Rams responded to take a two-point lead shortly after thanks to a free throw from Tanya Rhodes. Maryland answered to regain the lead in the contest by reeling off a 9-0 run, including a pair of buckets by Vanessa Ruffin to put the Terrapins ahead at the break. Renneika Razor paced the Terrapins in the first half of action with eight points while Daniels grabbed five rebounds on the defensive end of the floor.

The Terrapin run to close out the first half served as a wake-up call for the Rams as they opened the second half with a 14-6 run to take a 38-37 lead with 14:00 minutes remaining in the contest.

Razor Posts 12 Points in Loss

RICHMOND, Va. - Elise Ryder scored 14 points and went 4-for-4 from three-point range to lead Richmond to a 74-52 victory over Maryland at the Robins Center. Richmond improved to 5-1 on the season, their best start since the 1990, while the Terrapins fall to 3-3.

Richmond's Ebony Tanner led all scorers with 20 points and pulled down five rebounds. Kate Flavin contributed 14 points, eight rebounds and six assists while teammate Cammy Desmond came off the bench to chip in 14 points and dish out a career-high six assists.

Maryland took its only lead of the game in the opening minute off two free throws by Renneika Razor and the score see-sawed during the following five minutes. The Spiders went on their first of two 15-2 runs in the first half to take a 13-point advantage with just over 10 minutes remaining. Included in this run were three shots from beyond the arc from Ryder, Desmond and Amber Goppert in a two-minute span. The Terrapins responded, scoring eight points in two minutes to cut the lead to five, 21-16, the closest the visitors would come. Richmond answered with their second scoring run and took a 20-point halftime lead.

Terps Come Up Short Against the Hokies

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Renneika Razor scored a game-high 27 points to go with seven rebounds and a steal, but the Maryland women's basketball team fell to Virginia Tech, 60-57, at home in Comcast Center. The Terrapins are now 3-4 on the season.

Maryland trailed the Hokies 25-20 after a low-scoring first half by both teams, but overcame a nine-point second-half deficit to take the lead with less than five minutes left to play. Razor made a lay-up to give the Terrapins a 47-46 margin with 4:42 left in the game. She then converted two free throws to extend the lead to three, capping off a 13-2 Maryland run late in the second half.

Virginia Tech answered with five-straight points off of a putback by Fran Recchia and a three-pointer by Ieva Kublina, reclaiming a two-point lead. A jumper from Vicki Brick, who finished with six points and two assists, tied the game again with 1:45 left to play. Again, Virginia Tech answered, this time with a three-pointer by Recchia.

Down three with 7.6 seconds left to play, neither Razor nor Anesia Smith could convert on their final three-point attempts as time expired. Smith finished the game with seven points.

Virginia Tech was led by Ieva Kublina and Davina Simmons, who scored 17 and 10 points, respectively.

Terri Daniels, playing against longtime friend and former high school teammate Emily Lipton, was the only other Terp in double figures, scoring 10 points to go along with five assists and seven rebounds.

COLLEGE PARK, Md.- The University of Maryland women's basketball team cruised to a 56-38 victory over UMBC in the Comcast Center's auxiliary gymnasium. Terri Daniels led the Terps in victory with 12 points, while Vicki Brick added 11.

Paced by nine first-half points from Daniels, Maryland fought-off a pesky Retriever team throughout the half before finally pulling away in the final eight minutes. Two buckets from Charmaine Carr and a jumper from Renneika Razor put the Terps up by 10 points, 27-17, at halftime.

The Terps extended their lead with a 21-3 run that began with 4:52 remaining in the first half and ended with a Brick three-point basket with 12:50 left to play. The Terps, up by as much as 22 points in the second half, never trailed in the game and held UMBC to 38 points on the afternoon. The last time a Terrapin team held an opponent to under 40 points was last season on Nov. 23 at the Coaches vs. Cancer Challenge against DePaul (54-36).

In the loss, UMBC's Millette Green led all scorers on the day with 15 points and also grabbed a game-high eight rebounds.

Ross Posts Double-Double to Lead Terps

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - Led by 16 points and 15 rebounds from freshman Angel Ross, Maryland downed Cleveland State 76-62 to open action at the Gatorade Holiday Classic at the University of Miami.

The Vikings led by as many as four points in the opening half until a 16-0 run gave the Terps a 12-point advantage that they would never relinquish. The run, keyed by five points from Terri Daniels, extended Maryland's lead to 24-12 with 10:03 remaining before the break. Ross scored eight of her career-high 16 points and grabbed nine rebounds before the teams headed to their locker rooms with the Terrapins up 38-25 at the half.

An All-American at Cincinnati State, Delvona Oliver, who was playing in a Terp uniform for the first time, exploded with 12 second-half points. Oliver unleashed offensively, scoring eight points midway through the second half in a 3:42 stretch to stave off a potential Cleveland State run. She came one rebound short of a double-double in her Terps' debut, corralling nine rebounds to go with her career-high 16 points.

The Vikings tried one last run at Maryland in the waning minutes, but good free throw shooting preserved with Maryland hitting six-of-eight from the free throw line in the last 1:18 of the game.

The double-double was the third of Ross' young Maryland career. She posted career highs for both points and rebounds. Five Terrapins reached double-digits in the scoring column for the second time this season. Terps' guards Vicki Brick, Anesia Smith and Daniels each netted 10 points, while Ross and Oliver canned 16 apiece. Smith and Brick both added five assists, with Ross dishing four assists and blocking two shots to go with her career night.

For Maryland assistant Erica Floyd, the victory was a sweet one as she was an assistant with the Vikings before joining Terps' head coach Brenda Frese on the sideline at Minnesota.

Gatorade Holiday Classic

MIAMI 97, MARYLAND 66

UM Falls in Championship Game

CORAL GABLES, Fla.- Despite 24 points from Renneika Razor, Maryland dropped a 97-66 decision to the Miami Hurricanes in the championship game of the Gatorade Holiday Classic at Miami. The Terps fall to 6-5 on the year entering the conference season, while Miami wins the Classic title and raises its record to 8-3 on the year.

Tournament MVP Meghan Saake hit eight of the Canes' first 12 points as Miami started the game on a 9-0 run and continued to a 14-2 lead before the Terps mounted a charge. Maryland had a hard time overcoming the deficit in the first half, however, with three Hurricane players tallying in double digits and 19 Terrapin turnovers in the first half.

The Terps tried to close the gap in the second half, battling back to as close as eight points with 9:26 remaining, but Miami proved to be too much and pulled away on the strength of 14 second-half points from Tamara James and 10 from Shaquana Wilkins. The Canes eventually put the game out of reach for the Terps and finished with the 31-point win to close Knight Sports Complex to competition.

In the loss, Delvona Oliver had another strong effort for the Terrapins in just her second game as a Terp, finishing with 12 points and four rebounds. Her 28 tournament points and 13 rebounds over two games nabbed her all-tournament recognition.

Razor was the only other Terrapin voted to the all-tournament team after finishing the night with 24 points and seven steals, which ties her career high and gives her exactly 200 steals in her career.

Maryland Drops ACC Opener

RALEIGH, N.C. - The Maryland (6-6, 0-1 ACC) women's basketball team suffered a narrow seven-point defeat at NC State (6-6, 1-0 ACC) in its first Atlantic Coast Conference game, a 79-72 decision in Reynolds Coliseum. Terri Daniels led Maryland and topped all scorers with 20, while Delvona Oliver chipped in 19. The Pack finished the game with four players in double-figures, including a season-high 17 from Alvine Mendeng.

The Pack went on an 8-2 run to open the ACC contest, which eventually carried to a 14-3 lead at the first media time out. The home team held a 42-27 advantage heading into halftime, never trailing in the opening half. Mendeng led the NC State drive with 10 points, while Labador added nine. For the Terps, Oliver, who came off the bench and was playing her first ACC contest since transfering from Cincinnati State, paced the team with eight points and three boards. Daniels was next in line with six.

Maryland pulled to within seven points two times in the second half, both after successful three-pointers from Daniels, but the first-half deficit was too big for the Terps to crawl out from under. Daniels finished 4-for-12 for the night from the arc.

Renneika Razor was the only other Terrapin in double figures, finishing with 12 points, six rebounds and three steals. Oliver ended up one rebound short of her first career double-double for the second time in her first three games with the Terps.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Maryland women's basketball team (7-6, 1-1 ACC) captured its first conference win, a 71-63 victory over Georgia Tech (11-2, 0-2 ACC) on Sunday in the Comcast Center. The Terrapins never trailed in the game. The win came in Maryland head coach Brenda Frese's 100th career game as a head coach and marks the first ACC win of her career.

Terps Fall to Tigers

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Despite 23 points from Renneika Razor and 22 from Delvona Oliver, Maryland ended up on the short end of a 70-59 decision to Clemson.

The Terrapins weathered 0-10 shooting from beyond the arc in the first half and, led by 12 points from Oliver, entered the break trailing by eight points, 32-24. Paced by 12 points from Chrissy Floyd and 13 bench points in the opening half, Clemson pulled ahead for its first lead of the game at the 2:13 plateau, a lead it would never relinquish.

Maryland's shooting woes continued in the second half, as the Terps went 14-for-40 from the field. Clemson led by as much as 11 and left College Park with the 70-59 win, dashing the Terps' hopes of establishing a winning ACC record three games into the conference season.

Oliver posted the first 20-point game of her career, with Razor reaching the 20-plus plateau for the fifth time this season.

Floyd led Clemson with 20 points, and pulled down a game-high nine rebounds.

Terps Claim First ACC Road Win in 10 Tries

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Led by three players in double figures, Maryland held on fora 75-73 win at Wake Forest in ACC women's basketball action. A gutsy effort by the Terps leaves them 8-7 on the season, evening their conference record at 2-2.

Wake Forest falls to 10-4, 1-3 in the ACC.

Maryland encountered some foul trouble early, when post players Charmaine Carr and Delvona Oliver each were whistled for two fouls by the 9:27 mark in the first half. The Terps kept it close despite suffering an almost four-minute drought without a field goal between the 8:00 and 4:08 minute marks. An Anesia Smith layup ended the scoreless stretch and sent the Terps on a 13-4 run to finish the half ahead three points, 37-34. Terri Daniels led the Terps' scoring efforts in the first half, netting 10 of her 15 points.

The second half was a tight one, with five lead changes and two ties. Neither team led by more than five points in the closing 20 minutes, but once Maryland took the 59-56 lead at the 5:17 mark, the Terps never looked back. A diligent effort on both ends of the court and 7-for-8 free throw shooting down the stretch by freshman guard Chrissy Fisher, equaled a two-point win for Maryland and the team's first ACC road win of the season.

Senior Renneika Razor gave Maryland an outstanding overall effort, netting a game-high 17 points and tallying five steals. Oliver recorded her sixth-straight game in double figures for the Terrapins, scoring 14 points. Fisher also finished with a game-high 10 rebounds and nine points, just short of her first career double-double.

The Terps' win was their first ACC road win since Feb. 19, 2001, when UM grabbed a 69-53 win at Wake Forest.

Wake Forest was led by 15 points and eight rebounds from Tiffany Listenbee, and another 15 points from Eafton Hill.

Maryland Loses to Seminoles

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Florida State had its best shooting night of the season against Maryland, making 31-of-56 shots including 17-for-28 in the second half. And on those few occasions when the Seminoles missed, they usually got hold of the rebound. Throw in a torrid start and a 24-point performance by Tasheika Morris, and it's no wonder the Seminoles had an easy time defeating Maryland 76-61 in College Park.

Delvona Oliver scored 19 points and Renneika Razor had 15 points and a career-high eight steals for Maryland in the loss. The Terrapins trailed by 13 points in the first half but closed to 43-39 with 12 minutes left. Morris then scored four points in a 10-2 run that made it 53-41 with 7:41 remaining.

The Seminoles overcame 12 turnovers by shooting 50 percent from the floor - including 5-for-5 by Moore - in taking a 33-24 halftime lead.

Florida State took control at the outset, taking leads of 6-0 and 18-9 before Maryland finally settled into a rhythm. But after the Terrapins closed to 21-14, Moore scored four points in a 10-4 surge that put the Seminoles up by 13.

DUKE 101, MARYLAND 52

Blue Devils Run Past Terps

DURHAM, N.C. - Top-ranked Duke showed no lingering effects from one of its toughest games of the season.

Iciss Tillis scored 19 points to lead six Blue Devils in double figures as Duke beat Maryland, 101-52. Alana Beard and Sheana Mosch added 15 points each to help the Blue Devils beat the Terps for the eighth time in nine meetings.

Michele Matyasovsky added 12 points on 5-for-6 shooting for Duke, and reserves Jessica Foley and Wynter Whitley scored 11 apiece in a balanced effort.

Reserve freshman Chrissy Fisher scored 13 points to lead Maryland, which lost its third-straight game and shot just 34 percent. The Terrapins committed 24 turnovers, which led to 28 Duke points.

Only once did Duke seem to lose focus. The Blue Devils jumped to an 18-6 lead only to see Maryland score 11 unanswered points. Goestenkors called her only timeout with 10:47 left in the half.

"Play defense! Let's get with it!" she screamed.

Terri Daniels nailed a jumper to pull Maryland to 20-19 with 8:39 left in the half, but Duke took control with a 17-2 run in the final 6:20 of the half. Tillis had seven points in the run to the horn as Duke took a 37-21 lead at the break.

Maryland missed nine of its last 10 shots and committed eight turnovers during the run.

NORTH CAROLINA 83, MARYLAND 82

Terps Lose Heartbreaker to No. 7 UNC

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Coretta Brown hit a driving layup at the buzzer as No. 7 North Carolina rallied from an 11-point deficit in the second half to defeat Maryland 83-82. Nikita Bell scored a career-high 32 points for the Tar Heels who trailed 55-44 early in the second half and 79-74 with 1:58 left.

Chrissy Fisher had 20 points, Renneika Razor 19 and Terri Daniels 18 for the Terrapins. Razor put Maryland up 82-81 with a driving layup with nine seconds left, and she was fouled on the play. Razor missed the free throw, setting the stage for Brown's game-winner from the left side of the lane.

Down 79-74, the Tar Heels pulled even with 1:25 remaining on a 3-pointer by Brown and two free throws by Bell. After a Maryland miss, Bell made a layup to put North Carolina up, but the lead wouldn't last. Brown finished with 17 points, as did teammate Candace Sutton.

Coming off a 101-52 loss to top-ranked Duke, the Terrapins played much better against the Tar Heels, but still lost their fourth straight. After blowing an 11-point lead, Maryland used successive 3-pointers by Fisher to up 67-62. It was 71-68 when Sutton fouled out with 5:04 left, raising the Terrapins' hopes for an upset.

The Tar Heels entered with a plus-12.1 rebounding differential - the best mark in the nation - but Maryland collected nine offensive rebounds and held a 22-19 edge on the boards in taking a 43-37 halftime lead.

North Carolina scored the first eight points and led 18-12 before Maryland's Vicki Brick hit a short jumper to spark a 12-3 run that included two 3-pointers by Fisher. After the Tar Heels took a 31-30 lead, the Terrapins closed the half with a 13-6 run, including a layup by Razor at the buzzer.

Getting 3-pointers from Daniels and Fisher, Maryland used a 12-7 burst at the outset of the second half to go up by 11.

Razor Leads Terps to OT Win in Front of 5,000

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Maryland held on for the 74-72 overtime win over NC State at the Comcast Center. Renneika Razor led all scorers with 22 points and 11 rebounds. The game's attendance of 5,078 was the largest at a Maryland women's basketball game since Feb. 24, 1996, vs. Virginia.

After Alvine Mendeng put NC State up by two just five seconds into the game, it would take Maryland until the 6:06 mark when two free throws by Charmaine Carr and a layup from Razor put the Terps up by three points. The Pack regained the lead minutes later and sprung out to an eight-point advantage by the half.

Razor and Carr led the Terps' first-half efforts with eight points each. Razor also notched six of her career-high tying 11 rebounds in the opening half.

NC State opened a 10-point lead 5:31 into the second half before the Terps began to chip away the Wolfpack advantage. Maryland launched a 7-0 run over a seven-minute stretch ending with a Chrissy Fisher three-point basket to bring the deficit down to three points. Fisher ended the night with 13 points and was one of four Terps in double figures.

The Terps didn't actually take the lead until the 1:43 mark on two free throws from Razor. NC State's Terah James tied up the game with a jumper 11 seconds later eventually sending the game into overtime tied at 57-57.

On the strength of buckets from Fisher and Delvona Oliver, Maryland took a five-point lead in overtime and held on down the stretch for the 74-72 victory.

Terps Lose Down the Stretch

ATLANTA, Ga.- Led by 13 second-half points by Fallon Stokes, the Georgia Tech women's basketball team held off a late Maryland rally to defeat the Terps by a 59-51 score on at Alexander Memorial Coliseum.

The Yellow Jackets looked to take early control against the Terrapins, taking a 32-23 halftime lead in a contest the featured a number of early runs. Failing to score their first field goal until the 12:30 mark, Tech took the early 12-1 lead paced by six points from Sonja Mallory. The Jackets increased their advantage to 30-17 with 3:46 remaining on the strength of a 13-5 run. Maryland answered with a 6-0 run of its own to close within 30-23 at 2:01, as Angel Ross netted a pair of layups in the span.

Mallory led all scorers in the half with 14 points, while Mallory Winn added eight for the Jackets. Tech shot a solid 53.6 percent from the floor in the half, while the Terps struggled early on from the field, missing nine of their first 10 shots in the contest to shoot 36 percent in the opening period.

Tech continued to pull ahead in the contest with a 10-4 run to open the second half to take a 42-27 lead with 16:41 remaining. Maryland then mounted a ferocious comeback, staging a 24-8 run over the next 10:56 to take a 51-50 lead with 5:45 to play. Renneika Razor led the Terrapin assault, netting nine points over the span, while Chrissy Fisher capped the spurt with a jumper. That would be the last points of the contest for Maryland, as Tech hit 7-of-9 free throws down the stretch, including a 6-for-7 performance by Alex Stewart in that time.

Terps Lose in Final Seconds

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Maryland lost another heartbreaker at home, 79-75, to Wake Forest. Renneika Razor posted 20 points and Terri Daniels added another 19 points to lead Maryland offensively. Tiffani Listenbee led five Demon Deacon scorers who netted double figures with 16 points.

Wake Forest jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the opening two minutes of the game and eventually built a nine-point advantage in the first eight minutes. Bianca Brown and Tracey Allston got the Demon Deacons started with seven points and five points, respectively, to build the nine-point cushion. Wake Forest's Heather Miller blistered the nets, making four of her next five shots and scoring 11 points to keep the Deacs up 13.

Maryland whittled the lead down to seven by the half, led by 14 first-half points from Daniels and another eight from Razor. Both teams shot well to open the game, with the Terps hitting 53.8 percent of their shots and Wake nailing 50 percent as well.

Wake Forest stretched its second-half lead to 13 points at the 8:39 mark before Maryland launched a 19-10 run to close it to two with 19 seconds remaining. Razor drained 11 points in the run to lead the charge and kept the crowd of 2,140 on the edge of their seats until the buzzer sounded. It was not to be for the Terps, however, as the crowd watched Wake Forest grab its second conference win of the season.

The Terps utilized their third different starting rotation in three games. Freshman guard Chrissy Fisher posted her sixth-straight double-figure scoring effort, netting 13. Maryland shot only 41.2 percent from the free throw line, but converted a season-high 57.4 of its shots from the floor.

MARYLAND 66, FLOLRIDA STATE 61

Terps Win at FSU for First Time Since 1997

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - The Florida State women's basketball team suffered its third-straight loss, falling 66-61 to the Maryland Terrapins in ACC action at the Tallahassee-Leon County Civic Center.

Florida State scored the first two points of the game with a jumper by Katelyn Vujas. Less than 20 seconds later, the Terrapins answered with a three-pointer by Renneika Razor which began a Maryland run, bringing the score to 9-2 in the game's first three minutes. After the game saw two ties, FSU finally regained the lead on a Vujas jumper with 1:28 left in the half and took a 30-26 lead at the break.

The second half started off much like the first as Maryland scored the first seven points, nudging the Terrapins ahead by three. Florida State stayed strong and tied it up at 36-36 with a jumper by Angela Sutton. Free throws kept the two teams neck-and-neck, tying the score three times in the second half. A layup by Maryland's Vicki Brick started a scoring run that allowed the Terps to remain ahead for the rest of the game.

The Tribe got to within a point at 60-59 with 1:25 left. The Seminoles could not break away and the Terrapins outscored FSU 6-2 in the final minute of the game.

Vujas was the top scorer for Florida State with 13 points. Maryland's Razor offensively dominated the game and finished with 24 points.

VIRGINIA 71, MARYLAND 67

Terps Lose Another Close One at Home

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Despite another 20-point effort from Renneika Razor, the Maryland women's basketball team lost 71-67 to Virginia at the Comcast Center.

Maryland suffered through a rough first half, shooting only 28 percent from the field and netting only 23 points in the opening half. Turnovers killed the Terrapins in the opening 20 minutes, giving the Cavaliers 13 points off of 12 Maryland turnovers and sending Virginia into the locker room up by 16 points, 39-23.

All-ACC candidate Razor had nine points to pace Maryland in the first half, while Anna Prillaman led Virginia with nine as well. Brandi Teamer added eight first-half points for the Cavs.

The Terps nullified the 16-point deficit by the 10:10 mark, going on a 28-11 run to open the half. Early second-half points came from conference all-freshman candidate Chrissy Fisher, who netted seven in the run and Razor, who had 10 in the early going. Two free throws from Fisher gave Maryland their first lead since the 11:14 mark in the first half, 51-50.

The game was knotted three times before Virginia took a lead at the 7:02 mark, 58-57, on a Teamer free throw. UVa stretched the lead to seven before the Terps chipped away again and came within two points with 47 seconds remaining. It was not to be, however, and in a replay of the Terps' Wake Forest game of exactly a week ago, Maryland came up four-points short at the buzzer.

Teamer finished the day with a team-high 23 points and added four blocks for Virginia in the win. Liz Sahin added 13 for the Cavaliers while Anna Crosswhite netted 12. Razor tallied 23 points and grabbed 11 boards for her first double-double-this season in the loss. Fisher notched her seventh game out of the last eight in double figures, ending with 15 points.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Lindsey Harding scored a career-high 19 points and Alana Beard scored 18 points as No. 2 Duke beat Maryland 97-55, clinching their third-consecutive ACC regular season title.

Duke (26-1) controlled play from the opening tip-off, extending their ACC winning streak to 38 games. The Blue Devils routed Maryland 101-52 on Jan. 23 in the teams' previous meeting.

Renneika Razor missed her last home game as a Terrapin because of a concussion suffered during Maryland's loss to Virginia. Razor is the team's leading scorer and the ACC steals leader.

Duke dominated the first half, leading 41-14 at the break. The Blue Devils opened the game with a 19-1 run, during which Maryland shot 0-16 from the field and four of five Duke starters scored.

Beard was limited to 10 minutes in the first half because of two early fouls. Despite her foul trouble, Beard became the third player in ACC history to amass 300 steals, 500 rebounds and 350 assists while moving into 21st place on the ACC's all-time scoring list.

In Razor's absence, freshman Chrissy Fisher led the Terrapins' attack with 15 points and six rebounds. Maryland outrebounded the Blue Devils, 42-37.

Maryland succumbed to Duke's strong full-court press, turning the ball over 24 times, including 14 in the first half. Maryland leads the all-time series with Duke 31-21, but has lost six straight.

THE ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

The Tradition

Consistency. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 51st year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

John Swofford, ACC Commissioner

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 88 national champion-ships. Since 1990, the ACC has won 45 NCAA national titles and this past year eight ACC schools finished in the Top 50 of the final NACDA Directors' Cup ranking, including four in the Top 25.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With Maryland's victory over Indiana in the 2002 NCAA title game, ACC teams have captured nine NCAA basketball championships, including five over the last 13 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1938. The nine current conference members have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 301-154 for a sterling .661 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

Since 1985, when the NCAA Tournament was expanded to 64 teams, the ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 189-90 (.677) NCAA record, including 53 "Sweet 16" appearances and 18 Final Four berths. Since 1985, 53 of the 94 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

Since the 1990 season, ACC teams are 168-161 against non-conference ranked opponents. Since 1990, the ACC is the only conference to post a winning record against non-conference foes.

North Carolina and Duke lead all ACC schools with three NCAA championships each. NC State has two NCAA titles to its credit and Maryland one. The Tar Heels captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982 and 1993 while the Blue Devils won back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992 and their third in 2001. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed the 2002 national title.

The stature of ACC basketball is nowhere more clearly defined than by its regional and national television exposure. A total of 152 televised games involving ACC teams headline the league's 2003-04 schedule, including a record -tying 231 appearances. League teams are slated to make 133 appearances on national television and 71 of the league's 72 regular season games, including 39 on national television networks are scheduled to be televised.

Since 1986, 71 players from the ACC have been selected in the first round of the NBA Draft - 15 more than any other conference. This past season, the ACC led all conferences with 51 of its former players in the NBA, including Tim Duncan (Wake Forest), who was named as the NBA Most Valuable Player for the second year in a row.

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2003-04 academic year - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981. Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet being held in tennis at Wake Forest University.

Championships for women are conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

History of the ACC

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name officially became the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

This past June 30, conference membership increased to 11 with the announcement that the University of Miami and Virginia Tech had accepted invitations to join the league beginning in the 2004-05 academic year. Boston College was officially welcomed to the league on Oct. 17, 2003.

ALL-TIME COACHING HISTORY

Dottie McKnight

44-17, .721 • 4 Years (1971-75)

The first coach in the varsity era of women's basketball at the University of Maryland, McKnight directed a fledgling program into immediate success. In her four seasons at the Maryland helm, she never had a losing season. Her program was certainly not as established as it would become after her departure, but McKnight, in fact, boasts a better winning percentage than her successor, Chris Weller. McKnight laid claim to Maryland's first state championship in 1973, and won a second in 1975 with Weller as her assistant.

Chris Weller

499-286 .636 • 27 Years (1975-2002)

Chris Weller dominates Maryland women's basketball history. She guided her alma mater to a national championship game and to three Final Fours in total. Her Maryland teams enjoyed national rankings in 18 seasons and she engineered an unprecedented eight Atlantic Coast Conference championships. In 1995, she became just the fifth coach in women's college history to earn at least 400 victories at the same school. Three years earlier, her Terps were No. 1-ranked for nearly a month and drew to College Park a sellout crowd that still is the largest in history to watch an ACC women's basketball game. She was been a pioneer, architect and engineer to one of the most successful programs in the nation.

Brenda Frese

10-18 .357 • 1 Year (2002-Present)

2002 AP Coach of the Year at Minnesota, Brenda Frese became only the third head coach in Maryland history on April 2, 2002. With eight years of coaching experience behind her, Frese came to College Park with a mission to rebuild and return Maryland to national prominence. In her first season at the helm, she led the Terps to a 10-18 record, with eight of those losses coming by 10 points or less. The Terrapins also made several steps in the right direction, including breaking 100 points in a game for the first time since 1993, claiming the team's first road ACC victory since the 2000-01 season and drawing a crowd of 5,078, the biggest since Feb. 24, 1996.

2003-04 MARYLAND WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

GREAT TEAMS & GREAT MOMENTS

Great Teams and Great Moments define Maryland women's basketball since it earned varsity distinction in the 1970s, rising quickly among the nation's elite and maintaining excellence and winning seasons nearly 30 years later. Greatness has been synonymous with Terrapin women's hoops. And synonymous with the Terrapins was been Chris Weller who began her Terrapin legacy as first a player in the mid-1960s, only to return later as an assistant, and eventually, head coach until her retirement in 2002.

The Weller Era was marked by NCAA Tournaments, collegiate milestones and perennial national rankings. Here is a chronological look at highlights – great moments – in Lady Terrapin history.

1972-73 — State Champions

Maryland wins its first state championship with a 46-43 victory over Morgan State.

1974-75 — State Champs/AIAW Regional

The Terps wind their way to the second of three state titles, finishing 11-6 in the final season under Dottie McKnight. Perhaps most notable was the first-ever women's basketball game ever to be televised on Jan. 26 from Cole Field House. Maryland lost to defending national champion Immaculata.

The first-ever televised women's basketball game.

1975-76 — EAIAW Regional

The 1975-76 season is best known as the beginning of the "Chris Weller Era." Maryland successfully defends its state championship and finishes fourth in the EAIAW Regionals in Pittsburgh, Pa. The Terps go 20-4 in Weller's first season with an 18-2 regular season marred only by a pair of one-point losses.

1976-77 — EAIAW Regional

Maryland receives its first national ranking on Nov. 25 with a No. 15 billing by the Associated Press. The Terps would finish in the No. 16 spot at season's end, but not after a 17-6 final record and fourth-place finish in the EAIAW Regionals. Maryland downs Virginia 79-67 on Feb. 11 to mark the beginning of the Terrapins' second-longest series in history. Jane Zivalich becomes the first Terp chosen for the U.S. Select Team.

1977-78 — ACC Champs/AIAW Finals

The Terps register their best season to date, with numerous "firsts." Maryland captures the first of its now unprecedented eight ACC championships, earns a second-place finish in the EAIAW Tournament and finishes sixth in the final AP poll. The Terps beat UCLA and Olympian Ann Myers, 92-88 on Jan. 4 in a preview to the eventual national title bout. In the midst of an 11-game win streak to open the season and a 117-47 win over Duke, Maryland grabs a still-standing record 29 steals on Jan. 14. Maryland bests No. 2 NC State 89-82 on Feb. 11 to win the ACC title, and Tara Heiss establishes what is still the school mark for single game assists with 17 against Rutgers on Feb. 28. Weller's upset magic continues with a win over No. 1 ranked Tennessee on March 17 and a win over Southern Connecticut sends the Terps to the first-ever AIAW Final Four. Maryland downs Wayland Baptist on March 23 to win its first game in Final Four history. On March 25 a record crowd of 9,351 and national television audience on NBC Sports World watch host UCLA defeat the Terps 90-74 at Pauley Pavilion for the national championship.

1978-79 — ACC Champs/AIAW Quarterfinals

The Terps capture their second straight ACC title and reach the AIAW National Tournament for the second straight season. Maryland achieves its highest national ranking on Nov. 25 with a spot in the No. 2 position. The Terps down NC State in Raleigh on Feb. 10 to claim their second ACC banner. Maryland finishes 22-7 and ends the campaign with a No. 8 national ranking.

1979-80 — AIAW Quarterfinals

Kris Kirchner logs her name in the Terp record book with a modest 15-point effort against Seton Hall on Feb. 29. Its significance is her contribution to 1,351 points to establish a Maryland career record. Maryland captures its first EAIAW Regional Tournament title with a 79-70 win over Rutgers on March 8. Jane Zivalich is named a Rhodes Scholar finalist and the Terps advance to the AIAW quarterfinals. Maryland finishes with a No. 6 national ranking and a 21-9 record for its third straight 20-win season. Tara Heiss is named to the 1980 U.S. Olympic squad.

1980-81 — ACC Champs/AIAW Quarterfinals

Maryland continues its prominence in the EAIAW Regional, advancing to the title game for the fourth straight season. A 64-63 win over emerging rival NC State on Feb. 14 helps the Terps capture the ACC crown for the third time in its first four years of existence, and finish with a No. 8 ranking in the Associated Press poll. A trip to the national tournament in Knoxville, Tenn., results in a win over Kentucky and a loss to the homestanding Volunteers.

1981-82 — ACC Champs/NCAA Final Four

"Four" becomes a magical number to Chris Weller and her crew as the Terps win 25 times to advance to their second Final Four – this time it is the first NCAA Final Four just four years after appearing in the national title game in the first-ever AIAW Final Four. The Terps capture their fourth ACC title with a 93-81 win over Clemson on Feb. 28. The Terps earn the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional and defeat Stanford 82-48 in Cole Field House to mark the campus' first NCAA Tournament game on March 14. The Terps trek west for a win over Missouri on March 19, and Orake two days later to earn a trip to their second Final Four. Cheyney State upends Maryland 76-66 to end the season on March 26, but not without a No. 3 billing in the final AP poll marking the highest finish in Maryland history.

1982-83 — ACC Champs/NCAA Sweet Sixteen

Maryland tops Rutgers 83-66 on Jan. 26 to run its school record win streak to 16 games to open the season. NC State knocks the Terps from the ranks of unbeaten on Jan. 29, though only five weeks later the Terrapins earn revenge by downing the Wolfpack 84-81 for their fifth ACC crown on March 6. Maryland earns the No. 3 seed in the East Region and defeats Central Michigan on March 19 in an opening-round game. Maryland eventually falls to Old Dominion in the regional semifinal and ends the year with a No. 7 national ranking. The Terps conclude the season as the NCAA leaders in field goal percentage statistics, behind the strength of Kodak All-American Jasmina Perazic – Maryland's first to be so honored.

1983-84 — NCAA First Round

The Terps fail to win 20 games for the first time in three seasons, but record at least 19 for the seventh straight year. Maryland is ranked 17th in the final AP poll and earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region.

1984-85

Maryland enters the 1984-85 season having been ranked in the AP Top 20 for 128 consecutive weeks — the most by any team in the nation. Weller spends her summer months as an assistant coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup team.

1985-86 — ACC Champs/NCAA First Round

Success and championships return after just a one-year hiatus. The Terps enter the ACC Tournament as an underdog, yet win their sixth title, defeating NC State, Virginia and North Carolina. Oeanna Tate is named MVP of the tournament after downing the Tar Heels 90-74 on March 3. Maryland accepts a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region, and suffers an opening round loss to Ohio State.

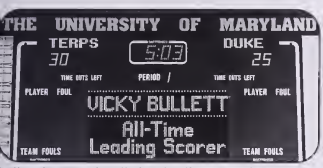
1986-87

The Terps exit the ACC Tournament in a semifinal loss to Virginia. It is only the second season in the last 10 that Maryland has failed to reach a national tournament.

1987-88 — ACC Champs/NCAA Elite Eight

And back come the Terps again. Not to be denied an ACC title for more than a season at a time, Maryland goes 26-6 overall and never loses in 13 home contests. The Terps take a four-game win streak into the ACC Tournament where they down Georgia Tech, Wake Forest and Virginia, and claim a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Oeanna Tate wins her second straight tourney MVP award as the Terrapins hold off the Cavaliers, 76-70 on March 7 for their seventh conference crown. They run their streak to nine games with an 81-66 victory over Ohio State in the regional semifinal on March 24. The Terps fall to Auburn in a bid for a third Final Four, but finish 26-6 and return to national prominence. Maryland finishes eighth in the final poll released by USA Today, and ninth by AP. Junior Vicky Bullett breaks Maryland's all-time scoring and rebounding marks with still a year to play, and stars for the U.S. Olympic team during August 1988. She wins a gold medal in the Summer Games while averaging 4.4 points and 3.0 rebounds in five games.

2003-04 MARYLAND WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

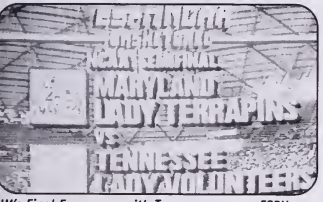


Bullett became the all-time leading scorer in 1988.

1988-89

ACC Champs/NCAA Final Four

Maryland's most successful season? Perhaps. Vicky Bullett and Deanna Tate both earn Kodak All-America honors as the Terps embark on an all-time best 29-3 record. Included in the mark was another perfect home record, 12-0, which ran Maryland's Cole Field House win streak to 27. On March 5, Maryland defeats Virginia 89-66 to win its 17th consecutive game, a new school record. The Terps won four more games to establish the existing school mark of 21 straight victories. The 18th win of the streak, March 6 against NC State, secures an eighth ACC title. Bullett is named the league's player of the year as Maryland enters the NCAA West Region as the No. 1 seed. Maryland notches win 19 of the streak on March 18 against Bowling Green with a 73-68 opening round win at Cole Field House. The streak grows to 21 with a 79-71 win over Texas on its home floor on March 25, earning the Terps a trip to their third Final Four. On ESPN in a national semifinal on March 31, Maryland watches its season and its streak wind to a close with a 77-65 loss to Tennessee.



UM's Final Four game with Tennessee was on ESPN.

1989-90

NCAA Sweet Sixteen

Maryland reaches its third straight NCAA Tournament with a 19-1 record. Maryland wins its first home game against George Mason on Nov. 29 to run its record home court win streak to 28 games before falling on Dec. 6 to defending national champ Tennessee. Vafne Lee helps the Terps to an 85-84 overtime win over Wake Forest to begin a four-game win streak heading into the ACC Tournament. In the process, she scores 39 points against the Deamon Deacons to tie the school record. On Feb. 16, Maryland earns a No. 1 seed in the NCAA East Region and downs Appalachian State 100-71 for its final win on March 14 at Cole Field House.

1990-91

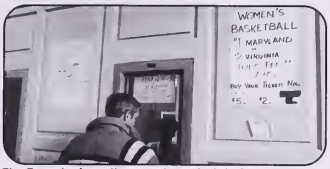
NCAA First Round

Maryland wins five straight games at mid-season to help in building a 17-13 mark and earn a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mid-East Region. Maryland advances to the ACC semifinals with a 71-73 win over Georgia Tech.

1991-92

NCAA Elite Eight

One of the Terps' most exciting seasons saw Maryland finish 25-6 in 1991-92, including the first No. 1 ranking in school history and a Cole Field House sellout crowd of 14,500 to watch No. 1 Maryland and No. 2 Virginia. Prior to that historic, No. 3 Maryland downs top-ranked Virginia 67-65 in Charlottesville on Jan. 15 to mark the second time in history that the Terps had beaten a No. 1 team. The win catapults the Terps to their first-ever No. 1 ranking on Jan. 21, a post they would hold for four weeks. Maryland wins its first five games to defend the ranking and runs its win streak to 11 games overall to set up a Virginia rematch on Feb. 11 at Cole Field House. The Cole sellout still is the largest ACC crowd in history and one of the largest in collegiate women's history. Maryland exits the ACC Tournament after an opening round upset by Georgia Tech, and bows to Western Kentucky in the Mideast Regional finals. The Terps end the season ranked eighth in both national polls, and Chris Weller is a consensus pick as national coach of the year.



The Terps had a sellout against Virginia in 1992.

NCAA First Round

Jessie Hicks scores 20 points to lead the Terrapins past No. 1 Tennessee, Dec. 30 at Cole Field House. It is Maryland's third win ever against a top-ranked foe, and coupled with a Jan. 2 victory over No. 10 Purdue, propels the Terps to a No. 3 ranking of its own. Maryland falls to Virginia, 106-103, in a memorable triple-overtime championship game of the ACC Tournament on March 8, but earns a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. The Terps are upset in an opening round game at Cole Field House, 86-82, by Southwest Missouri State. Maryland ends the campaign 22-8, and ranked 11th by the Associated Press and 18th by USA Today.

1993-94

The Terps finish 15-13 while ranking as high as No. 16 during the year. Maryland falls to Virginia in the ACC Tournament semifinals and gets its bubble burst when it fails to earn an NCAA bid for the first time in seven seasons.

1994-95

A promising rookie class of recruits is rated as high as fourth-best in the country, though Maryland finishes 11-18 on the season. Maryland defeats NC State 83-80 at Cole Field House for Chris Weller's 400th career victory on Jan. 28.

1995-96

Maryland upends No. 14 Duke at Cole Field House on Feb. 5, and No. 18 Clemson at Cole a week later on Feb. 10. The Terps finish 13-14, but again advance to the ACC semifinals.

1996-97

In her 22nd season as coach, Chris Weller readies the troops for another run at the NCAA Tournament. Maryland wins a pair of early-season tournaments and leads the nation in scoring defense through much of January. The Terps defeat No. 14 Duke 68-64 on Jan. 12, and drop No. 15 NC State by a 54-51 count on Jan. 18. The Terps defeat No. 21 Clemson on the road on Feb. 22 to earn a No. 3 seed in the ACC Tournament, but fall in a first-round game to Duke, 60-52 in overtime. The Terrapins gain an at-large NCAA bid in the Midwest Region.

1997-98

NCAA First Round

Facing a schedule ranked the third-strongest in the nation, Maryland leads the ACC in scoring defense and ranked 29th nationally. Maryland wins seven straight early games. Highlights include a pair of wins over Top 20 foes: No. 7 North Carolina on Jan. 18 and later No. 9 NC State in the ACC Tournament quarterfinals. Tiffany Brown nets a then-school record seven 3-pointers in the win over North Carolina before a national TV audience on ESPN2.

1998-99

A young Terrapin squad overcomes the absence of key seniors to finish seventh in the ACC and capture its third consecutive title in the Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29.

1999-2000

Maryland returns to the national scene as the Terps claim a berth in the 2000 Women's National Invitational Tournament. The Terps advanced all the way to the tournament's quarterfinals before falling to finalist Florida. During the regular season, the Terps recorded a pair of upset victories over ranked teams, defeating No. 12 Duke on Feb. 3 and No. 16 Virginia on Feb. 24. The win over Duke ended the Blue Devils' 20-game home ACC win streak. Tiffany Brown became Maryland's most prolific 3-point shooter, setting the career records for treys made and attempted. She also set the single-game mark with eight at Clemson on Jan. 6. Marché Strickland made five consecutive 3-pointers in a 65-second span against Georgia Tech on Jan. 23. Because of her accomplishment, Strickland garned national media recognition.

2000-01

NCAA First Round

The 2000-01 season marks the program's 17th national tournament appearance. The Terps topes then-No. 18 Clemson 85-73 in overtime in Cole Field House and sweeps the season series at Clemson when they are ranked 17th with a 68-62 victory. No. 22 NC State falls to the Terps 57-56 on its home court, and then suffers the 75-54 loss at Cole Field House when they are No. 17. On the doorstep of a Top 25 ranking all season, Maryland loses to Colorado State in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament after receiving its first NCAA bid since 1997. Terp juniors Deedee Warley and Marché Strickland score their 1,000th point, Warley in the upset at Clemson and Strickland at Duke on Feb. 15.

2001-02

A distinctive era comes to a close in the 2001-02 season, as 27-year head coach Chris Weller (499-286, .636) says goodbye to Maryland and Cole Field House closes its doors as the home of Terrapin women's basketball. On Feb. 21, with a 66-54 loss to NC State, the Terrapins celebrate their 28 years of memorable moments and championship history in Cole Field House. Weller officially announces her retirement from Maryland on March 5 after celebrating the ACC Tournament's 25th anniversary and the Terps' league-leading eight titles.

2002-03

A new era begins as Maryland women's basketball moves to its new home at Comcast Center with a new mentor at the helm in Brenda Frese. The Terps will forever hold the distinction of playing the first-ever basketball game, men's or women's, at the new facility hosting Loyola on Nov. 22, a game which Maryland won, 80-72. Renneika Razor scores the first basket en route to the Terps victory. Maryland breaks 100 points for the first time since 1993, when they downed UMES, 102-31, on Dec. 1. In Maryland's 69-58 loss at Virginia on Jan. 19. Razor becomes the 20th Terp in school history to break the 1,000-point barrier, ending her career ranked 16th all-time amassing 1,163 points. A crowd of 5,078 are in attendance for Maryland's thrilling 74-72 win over NC State on Feb. 1. It was the largest crowd since 1996 when No. 9 Virginia came to town. Razor ends her career with second team All-ACC honors, the highest honor given to a Terp since 1998.

COLE FIELD HOUSE

One of college basketball's finest venues, Cole Field House retired as the home of the Maryland Terrapin basketball teams in 2002.

When college basketball was achieving its most explosive growth - from the late 1950's to the late 1970's – there was one college gymnasium on the East Coast that sat as many as 12,000 fans. Cole Field House epitomized the new big time, main event status of college hoops, the sport of network TV and emerging legends. Despite facing cosmetic renewal, Cole's charisma was never tampered with. There was not a bad seat on December 2, 1955, when it was dedicated in the men's game against Virginia, and was equalling as thunderous when it closed its doors as the men's team defeated Virginia on March 3, 2002. Cole Field House will always be home to countless memories, buzzer beaters and a thousand slam dunks.

Many great women's basketball teams and great players have played at Cole Field House. It ranks among the top 50 all-time Best Women's Basketball Home Courts, as the Terps compiled a 288-95 mark (75.2 percent) from 1973-2002, which ranks 46th overall.

Cole was dedicated as the Student Activities Center, a $3.3 million project that was erected under the tutelage of Board of Regents Chair, Judge William P. Cole, Jr., and President Wilson Elkins. A year after the dedication, the building was named in honor of Cole, who served the Board of Regents for 25 years.

Although Cole has remained the same basketball hall it was built to be, there were refinements. Additions were made such as an increase in seating capacity to 14,500, scoreboards that not only told the fan what the score was, but also how loud they were cheering, and a new floor design.

As championships were awarded over the years, Cole got some of the very best. The 1966 and 1970 men's basketball Final Four were held there. In 1990, the first and second rounds of the eastern regionals were in Cole Field House. The NCAA wrestling championships were held at Cole in 1960, 1972, 1978, 1987, and 1990, and the NCAA women's volleyball championship took place there in 1990. Cole Field House also served as the home to most of the athletic department offices.

No. 1 ranked Maryland drew an ACC record 14,500 to its game against No. 2 Virginia on Feb. 12, 1992.

After 27 years at the Terrapins' helm legendary head coach hris Weller announced her retirement on March 5, 2002.

Averaging nearly 20 wins per season and having comleted 27 seasons as head coach of her alma mater, there re not many, if any, college basketball experiences that hris Weller missed. Her achievements are remarkable and er contributions to the growth of collegiate women's baseball are documented with the best known coaches in the ame. She finished her career in 2002 with the following st of notables:

- Weller remains one of a small handful of college coaches, nen's or women's, to coach 25 seasons at the same institution.
- Weller became only the fifth NCAA Division I coach to earn t least 400 victories at a single institution.
- Her Terrapins were ranked in the Top 10 nationally nine imes and the Top 25 on 18 occasions.
- Maryland earned a No. 1 ranking in the nation during nuch of the 1992 campaign.
- She guided the Terps to three Final Fours, eight Elite ights, and 10 Sweet 16 appearances.
- Maryland won eight ACC titles, the most by any proram, winning the Terps' first-ever ACC Tournament Champinship in 1978.
- Weller-guided teams advanced to national championhip tournaments in 17 of the last 23 seasons.
- Every four-year class of athletes Weller brought to Maryand reached the NCAA or AIAW National Tournament, and ll but five classes since 1975 participated in at least one weet Sixteen. All but six advanced to the Elite Eight.

In addition to Weller's accomplishments, her players have xperienced personal success as well. Under Weller, the Terapin program produced five Olympians, three Kodak Allmericans, 28 athletes who participated on national teams nd seven players and two coaches who had professional asketball careers. From 1980 to 2002, all but one athlete vho finished her eligibility earned a dipolma, a tribute to Veller's high expectations for her student-athletes both on nd off the court.

Taking over the program in 1975 from Dottie McKnight, uccess came quickly for Chris Weller. The Terps produced a 0-win season her first year and advanced to the EAIAW egional Tournament for the first time in the program's hisory. The following season, she coached the Terps to a final eason ranking of 13th, the first of eight-consecutive seasons the Terps finished ranked in the top 20. In 1978, Maryland made its first trip to the national championship recording a 27-4 record, winning the first-ever Atlantic Coast Conference Championship and advancing to the AIAW Final Four in Los Angeles, Calif. Maryland went on to win four more conference championships in the following five years along with its second trip to the Final Four in 1982. Maryland reached the Sweet 16 both in 1983 and 1984 and the Elite Eight in 1988. The 1989 squad won a school-record 29 games which included a 21-game win streak, advanced to the Terps' third Final Four appearance and finished fifth in the Associated Press poll. Maryland averaged a school-record 85.3 points per game in 1989, outscoring its opponents by an average of 19 points per game. Weller was named the ACC and American Sports Foundation's National Coach of the Year that season.

Ranked 15th in the 1992 preseason poll, the Terps earned a No. 1 national ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today polls for the first time in school history. On January 21, with a record of 15-1, the Terps garnered the top spot and stayed at No. 1 through February 11. During that stretch, the largest crowd to ever witness a regular season ACC game took place when the No. 1 Terrapins met the second-ranked Virginia Cavaliers before a sellout crowd of 14,500 at Cole Field House. Maryland finished the season with a 25-6 mark and a final ranking of No. 8. Weller was honored by the press and coaching fraternity for her efforts. She was recognized as the 1992 Naismith National Coach of the Year, the Basketball Writer's Association of America National Coach of the Year, as well as the Atlantic Coast Conference National Coach of the Year.

Maryland appeared again in the NCAA championship in 1993 and 1997, as well as the WNIT quarterfinals in 2000.

In 2001, Weller led the Terps were back in the NCAA Tournament, receiving their 17th postseason bid. The 2000-01 season was highlighted by sweeps of ACC foes Clemson and NC State. All four wins came when the teams were ranked in the national top 20.

Weller's basketball knowledge and coaching expertise extended beyond the confines of Cole Field House. She was an assistant coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup Team in 1985 and the head coach of the U.S. Select Team in 1986, 1992 and 1994.

Weller dedicated herself to the growth of women's basketball in the state of Maryland promoting the formation of the Maryland Coaches' Association. Nationally, Weller served as the long-time chairperson of the WBCA Legislative Committee and served as the EAIAW Basketball Committee chairperson. She was also a member of the Kodak All-American Committee and the U.S. Olympic Committee.

A 1966 Maryland graduate, Weller was a four-year varsity letterwinner in basketball and also participated on the swimming and lacrosse squads. Following graduation, she taught and coached at John F. Kennedy High School in nearby Silver Spring, Md. Weller returned to Maryland for her master's degree in 1973 and became an assistant for two seasons under Dottie McKnight. In 1975, the Weller dynasty began as she was elevated to the status of head coach.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

MARYLAND

"Strive for clarity, but accept and understand ambiguity."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Thirteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions and accept ambiguity."

And we also hope you enjoy the journey.

University of Maryland

The Campus

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest-rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality. The average high school GPA of entering students has zoomed from 3.01 to nearly 3.90, and the average SATs are now more than 1270. The student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 32 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

The university has 67 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, exceeding $350 million last year. Private giving also has increased, and the university last year concluded its first campaign by topping its $350 million goal by more than $100 million. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, Fall 2002 enrollment was 25,240 undergraduate and 9,561 graduate students. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policy-making and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

Did You Know?

In 1991, Maryland had one program listed among Top 25 entrants in the U.S. News & World Report Rankings. Maryland now has 67 programs ranked among the nation's elite, and the university is ranked 18th nationally among public universities.

A report card published in Technology Review rated the top U.S. universities in their quest for intellectual property, commercial partners and profits. Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland (28th) were the Mid-Atlantic (Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia) schools to make the "campus patenting" top 50 list.

Black Issues In Higher Education ranked the university fourth nationally in bachelor's degrees earned by African-American students at traditionally white schools. Maryland ranks first in African-American undergraduate degrees in social sciences and history.

The Wall Street Journal ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 16 among the world's business schools. Maryland is the top-ranked school in the Mid-Atlantic region (Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia). The Financial Times of London ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 8 in information technology, No. 6 in faculty research and No. 7 in entrepreneurship.

In the only undergraduate program rankings released by U.S. News & World Report–business and engineering–both the Robert H. Smith School of Business (No. 18) and A. James Clark School of Engineering (No. 24) were ranked among the top 25. The university also ranked in the top 25 for its learning communities (3rd), first-year experience (12th) and service learning programs (24th).

An economic impact study conducted by the economists with the Jacob France Center, an applied economics analysis center at the University of Baltimore, concluded that the University of Maryland generates $5.93 of economic activity for every dollar appropriated by the General Assembly, for a total statewide effect of nearly $1.8 billion.

Nobel Laureate William Phillips joined the university's physics faculty and is establishing a world-class atomic, molecular and optical physics group on campus. The Philip Merrill College of Journalism now has five Pulitzer Prize winners on its faculty. A sixth faculty member, Eugene Roberts, directed the Philadelphia Inquirer to multiple Pulitzer's as managing editor.

Libraries

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Hornbake Library, Performing Arts Library and White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institution in the Washington metropolitan area, providing vital resources to researchers, visiting scholars, and businesses throughout the region. The libraries' holdings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 24,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 million items available in microfilm format.

Research

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surrounding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their unique interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.

The university's enviable location — just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis — enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

Service

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.

With more than 90 high-technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

The university last year opened the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center, with its six state-of-the art performance halls, which has quickly become a center of cultural programming in the Washington metropolitan area. The university also boasts four art galleries and a broad range of public art throughout the beautiful campus. Additionally intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students of all levels an opportunity to participate as spectators or athletes.

More, Better Students Go To Maryland

There is no place better to be than the University of Maryland. As university President C.D. Mote Jr. noted in a recent Baltimore Sun front-page story, "This place is clearly on a tear."

With top-ranked academic programs (67 in the top 25, according to U.S. News and World Report), an honors program that competes with the Ivy League for top students, a prize-winning faculty (topped by a Nobel and six Pulitzers, among others), a highly diverse population, and a beautiful 1,580-acre campus located between the cultural and population centers of Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's little wonder that more of Maryland's top high school graduates choose the University of Maryland over all other Maryland colleges, public and private, combined.

In the latest U.S. News and World Report rankings, Maryland was 18th nationally among all public universities. The colleges of engineering, education, computer, mathematical and physical sciences, and information sciences are all ranked in the top 25 nationally. So are many of the individual programs in those schools and others, including criminology, journalism, public relations, counseling and others. The Robert H. Smith School of Business has been ranked among the top business schools in the world by the Wall Street Journal and the Financial Times of London.

More than 40 percent of all entering freshmen at Maryland are now enrolled in high-achieving programs like the Honors Program, Honors Humanities, College Park Scholars, Gemstone and a growing roster of living-learning communities where students with common interests in such topics as civil society and entrepreneurship can live and study together. With their wide variety of subject areas and top faculty from throughout the university, these programs compete for students with the best public and private universities in the country.

High tech, engineering and service industries thrive in proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internship and work-study opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland, College Park offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities. There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

Dr. C.D. Mote Jr.

University President
California '51 • Sixth Year at Maryland

When C. D. "Dan" Mote Jr. became the 19th president of the University of Maryland on Sept. 1, 1998, he proclaimed it a university "on the move." Five years later, under his guidance, Maryland continues to move — at an ever-accelerating rate — on the field, in the classroom, in the community and in the world.

Leading a great university is a big job, but it's a role that Mote is accustomed to, having spent his entire academic career at the University of California at Berkeley, where he earned all his degrees, chaired one of the nation's top-ranked departments of Mechanical Engineering, and eventually became Vice Chancellor for University Relations before coming to Maryland.

The University of Maryland is the State of Maryland's most important asset, says Mote: "The future of the state depends on this university."

As president, Mote is committed to making that asset even greater by nourishing a culture of excellence and civility across the campus, providing the highest quality education for students, strengthening the university's connections with its various stakeholders, building partnerships with State and national corporations and federal agencies and achieving distinction as an institution where discovery takes place every day and everywhere.

The university's progress can be seen in every area, from its nationally-ranked programs to its growing range of partnerships to its world-class, state-of-the-art facilities.

Quality Programs

Over the past decade, the quality of Maryland's programs has grown by leaps and bounds. In 2003, the University of Maryland moved up to 18th place among public universities in U.S. News & World Report rankings, the first time it has broken into the top 20 in its steady climb to distinction. We currently have 49 graduate and undergraduate programs and units ranked in the top 15 by U.S. News & World Report, up from 5 eight years ago.

While our academic successes have spread across the board, the university has emerged as a true powerhouse in business, computer science, earth sciences, engineering, environmental policy, education and journalism. Maryland is one of only 10 public and private universities that have their programs in computer science, mathematics, physics, and engineering each ranked in the top 20, and the Robert H. Smith School of Business is one of 6 nationally ranked in both the top 10 Business Faculty in Teaching and the top 10 Business Faculty in Research.

Faculty Stature

With the addition during Mote's third year of a Nobel Laureate in Physics and three more Pulitzer Prize winners (to join three already on the faculty), Maryland continues to attract the best faculty available. This past year a faculty member was the recipient of the Japan Prize, an award given by the Japanese government in technology that is equivalent to the Nobel prizes. More than 30 of our faculty are members of the national academies, the highest professional recognition attainable.

Experts on the Maryland faculty are regularly sought by the news media for their views on a wide variety of issues, including political events, international affairs, social trends, economics, the environment, science and technology.

Talented Students

Over the past 10 years, it has become a cliché to announce that each year's new freshman class is the most talented ever. The average GPA of entering students in fall 2003 is 3.9, while the average SAT score is nearly 1,300.

Not surprisingly, the number of students enrolling in honors and other special programs has also skyrocketed in recent years. Our extremely popular living-learning programs, which bring together students with similar academic interests in a residential setting, were ranked 3rd in the country in the latest U.S. News & World Report. In the last academic year, over 6,000 students enrolled in such programs as Gemstone, College Park Scholars, and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program.

Business Partnerships

The university's reputation for excellence and entrepreneurship attracts new partners to the state. A key drawing card to bring major players into the state will be the University of Maryland Enterprise Campus,"M Square," a 130-acre research park located near the College Park Metro. Tenants include federal agency centers and private firms.

A future tenant with extraordinary promise for economic enrichment is China, which is moving rapidly to become engaged in the global economy and seeking links to Western industry. The Ministry of Science and Technology of the People's Republic of China has established its first overseas research park in Maryland in partnership with the University. The Ministry sees this partnership as an opportunity to introduce China's emerging entrepreneurs to Western business practices and establish contacts with state's businesses and to serve as a base for China's technology entrée to the U.S.

Under Mote's leadership the university also helped to attract Fujitsu Laboratories of America to open a research facility in College Park. Fujitsu, the third-largest communications company in the world, shares a building with the Joint Global Change Research Institute, a research partnership between the university and the Pacific Northwest National Laboratory.

In order to fulfill its role as the state's most important asset, Mote has emphasized that the university must be engaged with the business and government communities in substantial and meaningful ways. In recent years, Maryland has assisted hundreds of Maryland businesses through its Technology Extension Program and Maryland Industrial Partnerships program, and incubated some of the most successful state biotech firms, including Martek and Digene, in its Technology Advancement Program.

Athletic Excellence

Mote sees athletics as an integral part of the university experience. Indeed athletic success more often than not reflects academic success, he notes. For example, all four of the teams that played in the 2002 NCAA basketball Final Four, including Maryland, are members of the prestigious Association of American Universities, the organization that comprises the leading research and academic universities in North America. "That's no accident," Mote says. "Institutions that are committed to excellence tend to be excellent in every endeavor. Our successes in basketball, lacrosse and other sports reflects our culture of quality as much as our successes in engineering, business, education and journalism."

Deborah A. Yow

Athletics Director • Northern Kentucky '95
10th Year at Maryland

Deborah A. Yow is in the tenth year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a year that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought about continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's nine years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable nine NCAA national championships as Maryland athletics has soared to new heights.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics three years ago is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges in the U.S. and Canada. She was recently singled out by Street and Smith Sports Business Journal as one of the leading administrators in the U.S. and she received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations, as well as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television for the 2003-04 academic year. The committee, comprised of the ACC's athletics directors, is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Additionally, in May, she was chosen as one of three recipients of the 2003 Women of the Year award by Women in Sports and Events.

Yow, who recently served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America. Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsible, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all nine of the annual department's budgets (the first balanced budget in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $42 million annually and the sizable prior accumulated operating debts have been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 15 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased 240 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by 275 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 25 teams.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Selected recently by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In football, won the 2002 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl and followed this with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl in December. In men's basketball, the Terps advanced to the Sweet 16 in the NCAA Tournament following its second consecutive Final Four and the National Championship in 2002. The Terps are among only a few NCAA institutions to have achieved this level in both these revenue sports in the same year.

Additionally, Maryland is one of only five universities to win a National Championship in both basketball and football (UCLA, Michigan, Michigan State, Ohio State and Maryland).

- Hired the Associated Press National Coach of the Year, Brenda Frese, as the new women's basketball coach.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S.
- Field Hockey played for the National Championship in 2001.
- Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways and has won seven consecutive national championships through 2001.
- Enhancing football facilities significantly with Team House and practice field upgrades.
- Moved into the new $125 million Comcast Center
- The athletics budget was balanced for the ninth consecutive year.
- In 2002-03, 10 Maryland teams competed in NCAA postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past nine years, Yow says, "We are pleosed, but we ore not sotisfied... our vision is to be one of the top 10 progroms in the notion consistently... we see no reoson to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "roise our sights ond shorpen our tools... to work hord ond smort...to recognize thot our only limitotions ore those thot we ploce upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also be highly organized, strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Reflecting on the status of the Terrapin football program, Maryland's Director of Athletics points out, "Our 2001 ACC Championship and 2002 Peach Bowl champion football team is an important part of our emergence as a preeminent national athletics program. Our football coaches care greatly about their players and their welfare. They emphasize the great importance of going to class, being good students and getting their college degree. Parents of our football players understand that these young men are in good hands with this wonderful staff of coaches. Our young men in Terrapin football have a full range of support in training, academics and career guidance from our coaches and staff of caring specialists. We ore winning in the clossroom ond on the footboll field."

Summing up the entire athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. he is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University — Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

Yow with Moryland athletics superstors Boomer Esioson, Bonnie Bernstein ond Steve Froncis.

He served as president of the Atlantic Coast Conference for the 1999-2000 academic year, and has chaired the University of Maryland's Athletic Council since 1995-96. He previously served on the Athletic Council from 1986-89 and 1992-95.

At the University of Maryland, Dr. Wellford has been involved in a variety of leadership roles. He was interim associate provost for research and for continuing education. He is chair of the law and justice committee at the National Academy of Sciences.

He serves on numerous state and federal advisory boards and commissions, and is a past (1995-96) president of the American Society of Criminology (ASC).

Dr. Wellford received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Maryland and his Ph.D. from the University of Pennsylvania.

Academic Support & Career Development

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by acting associate athletics director Val Sheley, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Kathy Fueston (right) works with the women's basketball team.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for six professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house last Fall. It features offices for two counselors, a program assistant and the learning specialist, as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

Maryland Gameplan

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

Career Networking Night

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume- writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

Student-Athlete Advisory Council

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success (C.H.A.M.P.S.) Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs Commitment Statements

Commitment to Academic Excellence To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

Academic Support For Returning Athletes Program

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

Sports Medicine

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's Sports Medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's Director of Athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

Dr. Brian Crites

Head Team Physician/ Orthopaedic Surgeon • Second Year at Maryland

Dr. Crites is in his second year as team physician. He is a graduate of Indiana University School of Medicine. Dr. Crites completed his residency in orthopaedic surgery at Duke University Medical Center and his sports medicine fellowship at University of Maryland Medical Center.

Dr. Crites is an assistant professor in the department of orthopaedic surgery at University of Maryland School of Medicine. In addition to his duties at Maryland, he is also the head team physician for the Baltimore Bayhawks professional lacrosse team and an orthopaedic consultant for the Baltimore Ravens and Coppin State University. A two-year starter on the football team at Hanover College, Dr. Crites earned four varsity letters and was team captain. He and his wife, Susan, are the parents of Ted (7) and Audrey (4).

Dr. Yvette Rooks

Primary Care Physician • Fifth Year at Maryland

Dr. Yvette Rooks is in her fifth year as a primary care physician for Maryland's program. Dr. Rooks graduated from the Upstate Medical School/Health Science Center in Syracuse, N.Y., in 1993. She completed her residency in family medicine and a sports medicine fellowship at the University of Maryland, Baltimore. She currently is an assistant professor in the Department of Family Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. Dr. Rooks also serves as a team physician at Coppin State.

She graduated with honors from the State University of New York at Albany where she was a four-year starter on the volleyball team.

Sandy Worth

Head Athletic Trainer • 30th Year at Maryland • Maryland '73

Sandy Worth, who has been affiliated with Maryland's athletic program since 1973, coordinates and directs the medical care for the Terps' football program in addition to her responsibilities as the university's head athletic trainer.

A native of Timonium, Md., Worth supervises and schedules a professional staff of six full-time assistants and approximately 25 student trainers who combine to provide medical assistance to the university's more than 600 student-athletes. Worth, a 1973 graduate of Maryland, joined the Terps' staff that same year as an associate trainer. She was promoted to head trainer in 1992.

During her career at Maryland, Worth has worked directly with five teams that have captured national championships — four in women's lacrosse and one in field hockey. In addition, she was the trainer for the women's basketball program when it won eight ACC titles and advanced to three NCAA Final Fours.

Student Health Center

Dr. Sacared Bodison, Dr. Stephen Fahey, Dr. John Lucas and Dr. Janice Ragland are four full-time University Health Center physicians who specialize in sports medicine. Dr. Bodison is the assistant director for medical services at the Health Center and has been involved with the care of student-athletes since 1982. STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

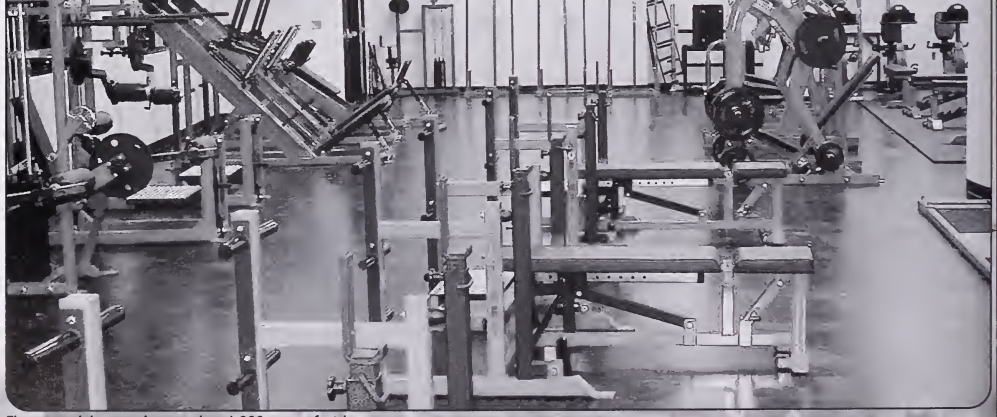
In the highly competitive world of collegiate basketball, the off-court preparation of the basketball athlete is a critical component in the on-court success of any Division I program. Corliss White, Maryland's strength and conditioning coach for men's basketball, believes strongly that a solid off-court training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and, in turn, has resulted in great success on the basketball court.

Corliss White

White's philosophy consists of allowing the players to gain strength, speed and change of direction capabilities through drills that are basketball oriented. He believes that the team must be prepared to run and play the up-tempo style of basketball that is Brend Frese's trademark. White trains the team so that it will be able to play up to Frese's style.

The Terps' new stote-of-the-ort weight room ot the Comcast Center.

The members of the women's basketball team have the use of a fully-equipped weight training facility located down the hall from the women's basketball office and the team's locker room in Comcast Center. The conveniently located 4,000 sq. foot facility features a combination of Sorinex weight training equipment and York free weight equipment. The strength staff utilizes this facility specifically during the season as basketball team members are personally trained before, during and after the season.



The new weight room is more thon 4,000 square feet lorge.

MAJOR GIFTS FUNDRAISING

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to providing its student athletes the resources they need to excel athletically and academically. It also strives to provide fans an exciting game-day environment in which to enjoy the exhilaration of collegiate athletics. The Athletics Major Gifts staff works with Terrapin Club members, alumni and fans to raise funds for facility construction or renovation projects and endowments for scholarships and programs.

One of the current projects, the Gossett Football Team House Campaign, is an effort to provide funding so that Coach Friedgen and his staff and team will have the tools necessary for Maryland Football to be a perennial contender for conference and national championships. The funds raised through this vital campaign will help to make significant improvements to our football facilities and fields. Over 20,000 square feet will be added to the existing team house through this expansion project, with the addition of: (1) an academic support area for football student athletes that has fully-wired computer work stations, group study areas and private space for tutoring and counseling – completed Fall 2002; (2) a multi-purpose room with full kitchen that will serve as the team training table for one meal a day, and will provide much-needed space for hosting recruits, their families and high school coaches; and (3) a team meeting auditorium that will be fully technologically capable, and will have sufficient space for the team to meet together as a group as they prepare for competitions, and an expanded entrance and lobby, to include a football Hall of Fame area.

The renovated team house will make a positive and strong impression to prospective players, our team, alumni and visitors, and will ensure that the Terps have the best possible facilities. Maryland must have improved, enhanced football facilities in order to be able to continue to attract the caliber of students who make Maryland Football exhilarating, competitive and a source of pride for University of Maryland students, alumni, faculty, staff and fans.

THE M CLUB

An 80-Year Tradition of "Athletes Helping Athletes"℠

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest and most respected letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,200 former Maryland varsity athletes and a leader in the National Letter Winners Association.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for all the varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate networking, social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund, support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts and provide for career development initiatives. Members receive information about the current teams and news about former teammates through a monthly electronic newsletter and a quarterly printed newsletter.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization.

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call David Diehl at (301) 314-5372 or Dotti Warren at (301) 314-7020, or visit our website at www.themclub.org.

Welcome To Maryland

Maryland basketball is one of the top programs in the nation. Head coach Brenda Frese, her staff and players welcome you to College Park and hope that your stay is enjoyable. Comcast Center is one of the top places in the nation to watch a college basketball game and the program would like to thank you for stopping here. The media relations staff is always available to service you and has prepared this media guide as a source of information which can be referred to all season. Welcome to Maryland. We hope that you enjoy your visit and that we will see you along the college basketball road again.

Before Your Visit

Game credentials are issued to accredited members of the media only. Working space in the press area of Comcast Center is limited and seats are expressly reserved for those working on deadline, with no exceptions. Children and other non-workers are not allowed in the press area. Credentials should be ordered at least one week before each game and are issued through the Media Relations Office. Requests for credentials should be made in writing and on letterhead stationery to Natalie Ciccone in the Media Relations office. If it is convenient for you to FAX your request, you are welcome to do so. The FAX number in the Media Relations Office is (301) 314-9094. These requests are accepted from Sports Editors and Sports Directors only. The credential requests should be sent so they reach the Media Relations Office at least one week prior to the desired games. They are carefully screened to insure good working conditions in the press area. When time permits, a working press pass and a parking pass will be mailed. When this is not possible, they will be left at the Press Will Call entrance at the southeast corner of Comcast Center.

Photographers, too, should make their credential requests at least one week in advance. Credential requests for photography passes are welcome. Strobe lights may be installed in Comcast Center, but arrangements must be made though the Media Relations Office two weeks in advance. Space for strobe lights is available on a first come, first served basis.

Game Day Press Parking is located immediately on all four sides of Comcast Center including lots 4 and 9.

Media Work Room

A press work room is available for working media only on the court level of Comcast Center. The media workroom is located just off of the basketball court to your left. A limited number of long distance phone lines are available on a first-come, first serve basis and require a credit card for billing.

The room opens well before game time and media representatives are welcome to make themselves comfortable.

Fax Machine Service

Fax machine service will be available. If you need any information faxed to your newspaper, please submit your request to a member of the Media Relations Office.

Press Seating

Press seating is located on the basketball floor in the northeast corner of the arena. The area is manned by members of the Media Relations Office throughout the game. The Media Relations staff desires to help the media be as comfortable as possible during each game.

Photographers

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in the photography areas on the basketball court. Only photographers on assignment, along with members of working television media, are given photo passes. Admission to the court and the photo boxes is by photo pass only. Photographers, both still and electronic, must shoot from the baselines at the northwest (Maryland bench end/ directly in front of press seating) and southeast (visiting bench) corners of the court. Photographer's floor access is governed by Atlantic Coast Conference policy. Please note that only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) will have access to the photography areas. Photographers are also welcome to shoot from the photo deck on the west side of Comcast Center. Access to the photo deck is from the concourse level opposite the team benches. Photographer positions are at the complete discretion of the basketball game officials and the Media Relations Office AT ALL TIMES. Failure to comply with their directions will result in expulsion from the arena.

In-Season Interview Policies

All Maryland players and head coach Brenda Frese will be available for interviews with accredited members of the media throughout the season. ALL INTERVIEW REQUESTS must be made through the Media Relations Office, contacting Natalie Ciccone. Please give a minimum of 24 hours notice. Player's individual phone numbers will not be given to the media and game day interviews will not be granted until the end of a game.

The Media Relations Office is located on the second level of Comcast Center in room 2725. The phone number is (301) 314-7064 and the FAX number is (301) 314-9094.

Postgame Press Conference

Postgame interviews with Maryland head coach Brenda Frese are held in media room following the game. Coaches from opposing teams will be brought to the media room after each game.

The Maryland locker room is closed to credentialed media. Players will be brought to the media room for postgame interviews at the media's request This is in accordance with ACC rules. The visiting team's locker room access policy is determined by officials of that school.

Postgame Statistics

Statistics packets, including running play-by-play, first half and final boxscores and post-game notes and quotes, are compiled following every game and made available to the media at press row and in the press room.
